Subject: DRAFT NESHAP Commercial Sterilizers regulation development QA/QC review

EPA is in the process of reviewing the commercial sterilizer air toxics regulation, NESHAP Subpart O, for potential revisions. To ensure help ensure the quality of EPA air dispersion modeling, EPA is requesting NMED review the accuracy of the information in attached files and to provide any corrections or updates to the relevant emissions data for this source.

SOURCE: Sterigenics, Santa Teresa, NM

EPA would like to receive a response to this request no later than 2/8/21. EPA appreciates NMED's assistance in this matter. If you have any questions, please contact me.

Thank you.
